

Today's Words

- ephemeral (adj.)
Lasting for a very short time.
Example: The ephemeral glow of fireflies faded by midnight.
- quandary (n.)
A state of uncertainty or perplexity.
Example: She was in a quandary about choosing between two job offers.
- luminous (adj.)
Full of light; glowing.
Example: The luminous moon lit the path through the woods.
- sagacious (adj.)
Having keen mental discernment and good judgment.
Example: The sagacious judge saw through the false testimony.
- resilience (n.)
The ability to recover quickly from difficulties.
Example: The resilience of the community amazed relief workers.

Quick Challenge: Write one sentence using at least two of today's words.