

Daily Word List

June 13, 2026

quiescent	adj. Temporarily inactive or at rest. "The volcano remained quiescent for decades."	panacea	n. A solution or remedy for all difficulties. "Technology is no panacea for social inequality." liminal	adj. Relating to a transitional or in-between state. "She described her study abroad as a liminal experience."	pernicious	adj. Having a harmful effect, especially gradually or subtly. "Smoking has a pernicious impact on health." gossamer	n./adj. A fine, filmy substance; extremely light and delicate. "Gossamer threatened with morning dew."	serendipity	n. The occurrence of fortunate events by chance. "Their meeting was pure serendipity." obfuscate	v. To deliberately make something unclear or difficult to understand. "Politicians obfuscate the real issues."	susurrus	n. A whispering or rustling sound. "The susurrus of leaves filled the evening air."